

GVC HOLDINGS PLC
(the Company)

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE NOMINATION COMMITTEE

(the Committee)

(Adopted by the Board of Directors on 18 December 2019)

ROLE

The role of the Committee is to:

1. Ensure that there is a formal, rigorous and transparent procedure for appointments to the board.
2. Lead the process for appointments and make recommendations to the board.
3. Assist the board in ensuring its composition is regularly reviewed and refreshed, taking into account the length of service of the board as a whole, so that it is effective and able to operate in the best interests of shareholders.
4. Ensure plans are in place for orderly succession to positions on the board and as regards the executive committee, senior management, including the company secretary.
5. Oversee the development of a diverse pipeline for succession.
6. Work and liaise with other board committees, as appropriate, including the remuneration committee in respect of any remuneration package to be offered to any new appointee of the board.

MEMBERSHIP

1. The Committee shall be appointed by the board of directors of the Company (the Board). The Committee shall have a minimum of three members.
2. The board shall appoint members of the Committee in consultation with the Committee chair.
3. Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up to three years, provided the member still meets the criteria for membership of the Committee.
4. The board shall appoint the chair of the Committee, who shall be either the chair of the board or an independent non-executive director and determine the period for which the chair of the Committee shall hold office. In the absence of the Committee chair or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present at the meeting shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting from those who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the board. The chair of the board shall not chair the Committee when it is dealing with the appointment of their successor.
5. The Committee chair shall review membership of the Committee annually, as part of the annual performance evaluation of the Committee.

6. The company secretary, or his or her nominee, shall act as the secretary of the Committee and provide all necessary support to the Committee including the recording of Committee minutes and ensuring that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration of the relevant issues.

MEETING

1. The Company Secretary shall be the Secretary of the Committee.
2. Only members of the Committee are entitled to attend and vote at meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary and with the agreement of the Committee chair. The Committee chair shall have the discretion to decide who, other than Committee members, shall attend and address Committee meetings.
3. The Committee shall meet at least once a year to consider whether or not directors should be put forward for re-appointment at the next annual general meeting.
4. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date of the meeting together with an agenda of items to be discussed and supporting papers shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee prior to the date of the meeting in a timely manner.
5. The Committee chair shall attend the Company's Annual General Meeting prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities and responsibilities.
6. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a Committee meeting shall be two members, one of whom shall be the Committee chair and both of whom must be independent non-executive directors. If there is difficulty in achieving a quorum, independent non-executive directors who are not members of the Committee may be co-opted as members for individual meetings.
7. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

AUTHORITY

The Board authorises the Committee to:

- I. Carry out all duties set out in these terms of reference, to have unrestricted access to the Company's documents and information and to obtain, at the Company's expense, appropriate independent legal or professional advice on any matter within its terms of reference as it considers necessary.
- II. Seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company or Group to perform its duties.
- III. Call any employee of the Company or Group to be questioned at a Committee meeting as and when required.

- IV. Have the right to publish in the Company's annual report details of any issues that cannot be resolved between the Committee and the board.

DUTIES

The Committee shall:

- a) regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, experience, independence, knowledge and diversity) of the board and its committees, taking account of the Company's strategic priorities and the matters affecting the Company and make recommendations to the board with regard to any changes that are deemed necessary;
- b) keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, relating both to the board and senior management, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- c) keep up to date and fully informed about the strategic and commercial issues and priorities and main trends and factors affecting the long-term success and future viability of the Company and the market in which it operates;
- d) set measurable objectives and targets for diversity and inclusion in relation to the board and senior management positions, prepare a policy on the promotion of diversity and inclusion on the board and in senior management and increase the gender balance of those in senior management and their direct reports to meet those objectives and targets;
- e) in the course of its work, give full consideration to succession planning for directors and senior management, based on merit and objective criteria and taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Company, the skills, experience, independence, knowledge and diversity needed on the board in the future, the length of service of the board as a whole and the need for its membership to be regularly refreshed;
- f) satisfy itself that plans are in place for orderly succession for appointments to the board and senior management;
- g) oversee the development of a diverse pipeline for succession, having regard to diversity of gender, social and ethnic backgrounds, cognitive and personal strengths;
- h) be responsible for identifying and nominating for the board's approval, candidates from diverse backgrounds to fill board vacancies as and when they arise;
- i) consider proposals for the reappointment or promotion of directors and also any proposal for their dismissal, retirement, non-reappointment or any substantial change in their duties or responsibilities or the term of their appointment;
- j) before the board makes any appointment, evaluate the balance of skills, experience, independence, knowledge and diversity on the board, and the future challenges affecting the Company, and, in light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment and set the process to identify, sift and interview suitable candidates. In identifying suitable candidates, the Committee shall:
  - use such methods as it deems appropriate, including the use of open advertising or the

- services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
- consider candidates from diverse backgrounds; and
  - consider candidates on merit, against objective criteria and with due regard for promoting the benefits of diversity on the board, including of gender, social and ethnic backgrounds, and cognitive and personal strengths, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position.
- k) for the appointment of a chair, prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected;
- l) before appointment, require proposed appointees, including the chair, to disclose other significant commitments to the board indicating the time involved;
- m) ensure that on appointment to the board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service, involvement outside board meetings and the induction process;
- n) ensure that all directors offer themselves for annual re-election by shareholders in accordance with Provision 18 of the UK Corporate Governance Code having regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the board and the Company's long-term sustainable success, in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the length of service of the board as a whole and its membership being regularly refreshed;
- o) keep under review the number of external appointments held by each director, consider setting any limits on such appointments that may be held by the chair of the board and non-executive directors and ensure that any new additional external appointments are approved in advance by the board before being accepted;
- p) ensure that all new directors undertake an appropriate induction programme to ensure that they are fully informed about the Company's main areas of business activity, including those involving significant risk, and the strategic priorities and commercial issues affecting the Company and the markets in which it operates as well as their duties and responsibilities as a director;
- q) consider any training requirements for the board as a whole;
- r) before appointment of a director, require the proposed appointee to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest;
- s) consider and, if appropriate, authorise situational conflicts of interest of directors and potential directors and to keep under review at least annually potential conflicts of interests of directors disclosed to the Company and develop appropriate processes for managing such conflicts if the Committee considers this to be necessary;
- t) assist with the implementation of an annual evaluation process to assess the overall and individual performance and effectiveness of the board and its committees, including consideration of balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the Company, its diversity, how the board works together as a unit, and other factors relevant to the board's effectiveness;

- u) review the results of the board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the board, its diversity and how effectively the members of the board work together to achieve objectives;
- v) ensure that evaluation of the board is externally facilitated at least every three years and review the results of the performance evaluation of the Committee; and
- w) review annually the time required from non-executive directors, including the chair and senior independent director. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties.

BOARD RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee shall make recommendations to the board, as appropriate, on the following:

- i. the appointment of any director to executive or other office other than to the positions of chair and chief executive, the recommendation for which is to be considered at a meeting of the full board;
- ii. the chair of the board, having assessed every three years whether the present incumbent shall continue in post, taking into account the need for continuity versus freshness of approach;
- iii. suitable candidates for the role of senior independent director;
- iv. membership and chairship of all board committees, as appropriate, in consultation with the chair of those committees; and
- v. formulating succession plans for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of chair and chief executive.

OTHER MATTERS

1. The re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office, having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the board and the Company's long-term sustainable success, in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the length of service of the board as a whole and its membership being regularly refreshed;
2. The re-election by shareholders of directors in accordance with Provision 18 of the Code or the retirement by rotation provisions in the articles of association, having regard to their performance and commitment to the role and their contribution to the Company's long-term sustainable success;
3. Any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the Company, subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract.

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee chair shall report to the board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities and the minutes of all Committee meetings shall be included in the board papers for a subsequent board meeting or made available on request.

The Committee shall:

4. make whatever recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed;
5. produce a report to be included in the Company's annual report including any matters required by the Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules published by the Financial Conduct Authority and describing its work, including:
  - (i) its activities, the membership of the Committee, number of meetings and attendance over the course of the year;
  - (ii) the process used in relation to appointments, its approach to succession planning and how both support developing a diverse pipeline;
  - (iii) identifying in the annual report any external search consultancy that has been engaged, together with a statement about any other connection it has with the Company or individual directors;
  - (iv) how the board evaluation has been conducted, the nature and extent of an external evaluator's contact with the board and individual directors, the outcomes and actions taken, and its influence on board composition; and
  - (v) identifying in the annual report any external evaluator together with a statement about any other connection it has with the Company or individual directors.
6. provide a description of the board's policy on diversity and inclusion, its objectives and linkage to company strategy, how it has been implemented and progress on achieving the objectives; and the gender balance of those in the senior management and their direct reports in the annual report;
7. ensure, through the chair of the board, that the Company maintains contact and the Committee chair seeks engagement, as required, with the Company's major shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility; and
8. make publicly available the Committee's terms of reference by placing them on the Company's website.
